Summer Reading Program "Caution" Library under construction Library under construction Library under construction M M M M M M M M M M M M M	Middlebury Public Library	-
Library under construction a d d M of the second of the se		R
dMAMAMAAABB<	"Caution"	е
Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. What do you have to do? Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your grade level or have books read to you. Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. What do you have to do? Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your grade level or have books read to you. Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. What do you have to do? Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up your grade level or have books read to you. Record the number of minutes that you read. Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up you do? What else do you do? Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools? Image: Comparison of the summer reading program and pick up you have collect the whole set of construction tools.	Library under construction	а
Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel r by Virginia Lee Burton r Who can join? Any PreK or elementary school age child. e How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. e What do you have to do? What do you have to do? W Read books at your grade level or have books read to you. i Record the number of minutes that you read. i What else do you do? i When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. i Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. M Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools? M		d
Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel r by Virginia Lee Burton e Who can join? Any PreK or elementary school age child. e How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. e What do you have to do? W Read books at your grade level or have books read to you. w Record the number of minutes that you read. i For every 30 minutes you read, color in 1 brick on your sheet. i What else do you do? i When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. n Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. M Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools? M		Μ
by Virginia Lee Burton C Who can join? Any PreK or elementary school age child. C How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. C What do you have to do? Read books at your grade level or have books read to you. C Record the number of minutes that you read. For every 30 minutes you read, color in 1 brick on your sheet. I What else do you do? When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. I Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. I Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools? I		0
Who can join? Any PreK or elementary school age child.eHow do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag.wWhat do you have to do? Read books at your grade level or have books read to you. Record the number of minutes that you read. For every 30 minutes you read, color in 1 brick on your sheet.wWhat else do you do? When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools.nAnything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August.MCan you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?M	Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel	r
 How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag. What do you have to do? Read books at your grade level or have books read to you. Record the number of minutes that you read. For every 30 minutes you read, color in 1 brick on your sheet. What else do you do? When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools? 		e
Read books at your grade level or have books read to you.WRecord the number of minutes that you read.For every 30 minutes you read , color in 1 brick on your sheet.IWhat else do you do?IWhen you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools.IAnything else?Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August.ICan you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?I	How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program	C
For every 30 minutes you read, color in 1 brick on your sheet.What else do you do?When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools.Anything else?Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August.Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?		W
 What else do you do? When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?
When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools. Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?
construction tools. Anything else? Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?		n
Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August. Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?
drawing for July and August. IVI Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?	Anything else?
		Μ
For additional information call the Middlebury Public Library 203-758-2634 and ask for the Chidlren's Department.	Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?	•
r e	For additional information call the Middlebury Public Library 203-758-2634 and ask for the Chidlren's Department.	U
e		r
		е

Middlebury Public Library Summer Reading Program	R
"Caution"	е
Library under construction	а
	þ
	Μ
	0
Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel	r
by Virginia Lee Burton Who can join? Any PreK or elementary school age child.	е
How do you join? Sign up at the library to join the summer reading program and pick up your construction hard hat and book bag.
What do you have to do? Read books at your grade level or have books read to you.	W
Record the number of minutes that you read.	:
For every 30 minutes you read , color in 1 brick on your sheet.
What else do you do?	n
When you have colored in 10 bricks, stop by the library and start collecting your construction tools.	11
Anything else?
Remember, for each colored brick, you may enter your name into the monthly drawing for July and August.	Μ
Can you read enough to collect the whole set of construction tools?
For additional information call the Middlebury Public Library 203-758-2634 and ask for the Chidlren's Department.	0
	r
	е