Honor a friend, family member or colleague

Pay tribute to the memory of a special person

Express appreciation and support for the Middlebury Public Library

Celebrate a special person in your life by making a contribution to the Middlebury Public Library. A new acquisition will be added to the library's collection in their honor.

You may designate the subject to reflect the interest of the individual in whose name the donation is made.

Each new item will receive a commemorative plate identifying the donor and the person being honored. The library will notify the appropriate individual. The amount of all contributions will remain confidential.

Your gift will be an expression of your special sentiment and will enrich the Middlebury Public Library's collection!

Please complete the form on the reverse side of this page and return it to the Middlebury Public Library.
