

Middlebury Public Library
Code of Conduct Policy
Revised Covid-19 Addendum

- Patrons with a temperature or feeling sick should not come to the library.

- Patrons must use hand sanitizer as they enter the library.

- Patrons must wear a face covering at all times while in the library unless under 2 years of age regardless of vaccination or not. The Middlebury Public Library will be in compliance with the State of Connecticut and Town of Middlebury policies.

- Patrons must practice social distancing by maintaining 3 to 6 feet from other patrons and staff at all times.

- No social gathering inside the library building.

- Return all materials in the outdoor book drop.

The Middlebury Public Library will continue to monitor public safety.

Revision to this Addendum is at the discretion of the Head Director.
